

I Am Yours

102BPM

© Ryan Baker-Barnes, Julian Kindred 2011

verse 1            Cmaj7                    D
It was Your love that reached out
                         Em                                    C
Stepped into my world, broke through the darkness
                         G/B                    D                    Cmaj7
It was Your love that reached out and won my heart

pre-chorus
Em D/F# C
Love so amazing
Em D/F# C
Has come to save me
      Em D/F# C                    D
To love so amazing I give my all

chorus    G                    D/F#                    Em                    Bm
I am Yours, In surrender, I am Yours, now forever
                         C                    D                    Em                    Bm
You have won my heart and I am Yours
                         C                    D                    Em                    Bm
I am Yours, in devotion, I am Yours, with abandon
                         C                    D                    Em                    Bm
You have all my heart for I am Yours

verse 2            Cmaj7                    D
It was Your love that reached out
                         Em                                    C
Embraced the cross and, lifted my burdens
                         G/B                    D                    Cmaj7
It was Your Love that reached out and won my heart

middle eight                    C                                    D
And I would have nothing, if it weren't for Your love
                         Em                                    D/F#
Amazed that You chose me, just the way that I was
                         C                                    D
Caught in the shadows, but You opened my eyes
                         Em                    Bm
To Your beautiful light

ALTERNATIVE CHORDS VERSION

verse 1            G                    D/F#
It was Your love that reached out
                         Em                                    C
Stepped into my world, broke through the darkness
                         G/B                                    D                                    C
It was Your love that reached out and won my heart

pre-chorus
Em D/F# C
Love so amazing
Em D/F# C
Has come to save me
      Em D/F# C                                    D
To love so amazing I give my all

chorus    G                    D/F#                    Em                    C
I am Yours, In surrender, I am Yours, now forever
                         G/B                    D                                    C
You have won my heart and I am Yours
                         G                    D/F#                    Em                    C
I am Yours, in devotion, I am Yours, with abandon
                         G/B                    D                                    C
You have all my heart for I am Yours

verse 2            G                    D/F#
It was Your love that reached out
                         Em                                    C
Embraced the cross and, lifted my burdens
                         G/B                                    D                                    C
It was Your Love that reached out and won my heart

middle eight            G                                    D/F#
And I would have nothing, if it weren't for Your love
                         Em                                    C
Amazed that You chose me, just the way that I was
                         G                                    D/F#
Caught in the shadows, but You opened my eyes
                         Em                    C
To Your beautiful light